SHE PLAYS IT IN "BE FLAT"

Pianist Margaret Shotwell Out to Tune of Just $1,000,000 in Shattering Discard of Stocks

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)—Margaret Shotwell, beautiful Omaha "cigarette heiress" and concert pianist, not only went flat broke in the recent stock market crash, but over $600,000 as a result of her speculative operations in Wall Street.

Not having lost all her money was disclosed in Omaha tonight by her mother, Mrs. Margaret B. Shotwell, who placed her daughter's losses at approximately $1,000,000. At the Savoy-Plaza Hotel in New York, where her financial reverses compelled her to remove a few days ago from a luxurious suite to a studio room, she confirmed her mother's statement.

"Yes, they cleaned me out," admitted Miss Shotwell, who has given her native Omaha numerous benefits, not least among them her employment in 1924 to a little Iowa town with Capt. James W. Arnold, Seventeenth Infantry, U.S.A., then stationed at Fort Crook, Neb., and whom she divorced the following year in Paris.

"I'm dead broke, and worse—in debt, as a consequence of trying to save myself in the market," she continued. "I owe more than $500,000 and I'm trying to find a buyer for my Christmas coat, and some of my jewelry so that I can square up."

Sacrificed in her gambling in three stocks, Montgomery Ward, American Telephone and Telegraph, and Paramount, was her entire inheritance from John Neal, an aged bachelor admirer of her music and a leading stockholder in the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, who died in 1922.

The bequest was said to be $1,000,000 and included a large amount of Reynolds stock which, Miss Shotwell said tonight, she turned over to her brokers in New York and Omaha in a futile effort to escape being closed out.

The pianist who obtained her freedom from Capt. Arnold, when she was 20, because she said he interfered with her musical career, and who last year in Berlin was reported engaged to Victor Skrin, member of a distinguished Viennese family, and friend of Count Ludwig Salm, once the husband of Millicent Baring, said she had speculated in stocks for only a year.

"The blow fell while I was on a train en route here from Omaha last Tuesday," she said. "I had thrown in everything I possessed. It is a hard lesson, but I'm trying to be a good sport about it."

WAR ON STOCK GAMING PUSHED

Senator Glass Voices Views and Offers Remedy

High and Mighty Financiers Arouse His Wrath

Stronger Rule by Federal Reserve Advocated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—Stronger rule by the Federal Reserve Board against "men in the financial world who imagine themselves superior to the existing government banking system" was advocated today by Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, as a means of preventing "such disasters in stock gambling operations as have recently disgraced the country."

Senator Glass, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Woodrow Wilson, voiced his views and suggested legislation to carry them out in a letter to the member banks of the Federal Reserve Bank on the grounds that he had defied the board by supplying money to the call loan market at a critical time.

Also proposing legislation to allow member banks of the Federal Reserve System a greater percentage of earnings, the Virginia legislator has little hope of remedial banking legislation before the regular session of Congress next month.

He has pending an amendment to the tariff bill to place a 5 per cent tax on speculative stock market transactions.

DEFIANCE CHARGED

Last spring Glass unsuccessfully urged the Federal Reserve Board to discipline Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank of New York, as a member of the board of directors of the New York Federal Reserve Bank on the grounds that he had defied the board by supplying money to the call loan market at a critical time.

He has pending an amendment to the tariff bill to place a 5 per cent tax on speculative stock market transactions.

BREKIDY SOUGHT

Speaking of "other matters which need grave attention," the senator in his letter today to Gov. W. P. G. Harding of the Boston Federal Reserve Bank, specified modification of the National Bank Act and the Federal Reserve Act so as to make it more mandatory, if possible, on the administration of the banking laws to prevent, by penalization, such disasters in stock gambling operations as recently disgraced the country.

"If there are men in the financial world, as I think undoubtedly there are," he continues, "who imagine themselves superior to the existing governmental banking system and who are totally indifferent to the real commercial and industrial interests of the nation, the sooner such men are restrained and severely disciplined by adequate punishment, the better will it be for the country."

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8. (AP)—A delightful scheme to boost the circulation of the Gopher, undergraduate year book at the University of Minnesota, has failed.

Twelve chorus girls were to be on the campus an hour and fifteen minutes and kiss everybody who subscribed. Dean Nicholson put his foot down on the plan.

SALVE FOR GIRL'S HURTS SHRINKING

Hostess Mauled by Them Has Verdict Cut Down to $25,000 by Court

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (AP)—The $75,000 verdict awarded by a jury to Marcia Resador, night-club hostess, in her $100,000 suit for mistreatment against Harry K. Thaw, today was reduced to $25,000 by Supreme Court Justice Levy.

The verdict was returned two weeks ago after a second trial of the suit in which the girl charged that Thaw had bitten her and paddled her with a hairbrush at a New Year's Day party in his apartment in 1927.

Justice Levy had under consideration a motion by Thaw's attorney to set aside the verdict and announced he would grant the motion unless the girl will take $25,000. Her counsel said he felt confident she will take the smaller sum.

Thomas A. McCreath, Thaw's lawyer, announced he intends to appeal. "I am frank in telling you," Justice Levy said, "that if it were not for the clear intent of the jury that this man must be punished as a deterrent I would have reduced the verdict much more."

Oklahoman May be China Envoy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The name of a successor to John Van A. MacMurray, Minister to China, who resigned recently, has been submitted to the Nanking government for approval.

While there will be no announcement on the appointment until the Chinese have indicated their approval, it has been intimated in high administration circles that Nelson T. Johnson of Newbury, Okla., assistant Secretary of State in charge of Near Western affairs, will be appointed.

COTTON GUESS GOES UPWARD

Total of 15,009,000 Bales Now Due This Year

That Exceeds Forecast of Experts Months Ago

Crop Will be Larger Than It Was for Last Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—A cotton crop of 15,009,000 bales this year was forecast today by the Department of Agriculture.

A crop of 14,915,000 was forecast a month ago when the condition of the crop was reported as being 80 per cent of normal. The cotton crop of 1928 was 14,478,000 bales.

The indicated production by States follows:

Virginia, 44,000; North Carolina, 700,000; South Carolina, 850,000; Georgia, 1,540,000; Florida, 95,000; Missouri, 210,000; Tennessee, 510,000; Alabama, 1,335,000; Mississippi, 1,450,000; Louisiana, 830,000; Texas, 2,900,000; Oklahoma, 1,235,000; Arkansas, 1,400,000; New Mexico, 85,000; Arizona, 197,000; California, 232,000; other, 18,000.

The Census Bureau announced that 10,162,482 running bales of cotton of the 1929 crop, including 398,781 round bales counted as half-bales, had been ginned prior to the 1st inst.

To November 1, last year, a total of 10,162,482 running bales, counting round bales as half-bales, had been ginned. In 1927 a total of 9,800,848 running bales, counting round bales as half-bales, had been ginned prior to November 1.

Ginning by States were:

Virginia, 17,130; North Carolina, 290,977; South Carolina, 335,065; Georgia, 1,031,400; Florida, 20,851; Missouri, 102,331; Tennessee, 237,341; Alabama, 1,061,339; Mississippi, 1,540,729; Louisiana, 743,503; Texas, 1,142,289; Oklahoma, 704,978; Arkansas, 1,067,726; New Mexico, 27,028; Arizona, 59,826; California, 95,451; other, 5467.

FIGURES RESULT IN INCREASED PRICES

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8. (AP)—The effect of the government crop figures on the local cotton market was slightly bullish and resulted in an advance of 6 to 15 points on active positions. Although the indicated yield of 15,009,000 bales was about as expected, the ginnings total of 10,162,482 bales was much smaller than private estimates.

FARM BOARD BACKS LOAN TO CO-OPERATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The Federal Farm Board today approved a loan of not exceeding $4,000,000 to the staple cotton co-operative association to supplement loans to that organization from other sources.

The loan will enable the association to make advances to its member growers on the 15 cents-a-pound basis and constitutes a revision of a former loan of a small amount by the board.

GLOBEHOPPER'S WIFE ALONE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Marian Mears

GIRDLER OF GLOBE LOTH TO TRAVEL

John Henry Mears Sued for Divorce on Grounds He Won't Leave New York

OAKLAND, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)—The matrimonial peace set by John Henry Mears, millionaire who set a record by girdling the globe in twenty-three days and then took it to the Grand Seppuku, apparently is too short for his wife.

The wife, Mrs. Marian Mears, a former actress, filed suit for divorce here today. As her chief grievance she said that Round-the-World Mears has become so set in his habits that he refuses to travel from Broadway to California, although she has given him plenty of time.

Another complaint of Mrs. Mears is that her husband does not spend his money on her.

He sent her to California a year ago, she says, and since has refused either to visit her or to send her money for a return trip. Meanwhile he lingers on Broadway, where he has produced "Brothers" and other shows, and is spending with a lavish hand, the former actress relates.

Calling of Banker Kahn Also Among Possibilities

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8. (AP)—The central scene of the excitement over liquor conditions in the capital has become a grand jury room, where on Monday Edward E. Loomis, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, is slated to give his account of the "Wall-street booze party" which Senator Brookhart of Iowa recently exposed in the Senate.

Dist. Atty. Rover moved again today to get details of the dinner before the grand jury, inviting Frank A. Right, manager of the Willard Hotel, to present the records pertaining to the gathering there in December, 1928. Brookhart, who already has testified to the grand jury, of the "Wall-street booze party" which Senator Brookhart of Iowa recently exposed in the Senate.

The "Wall-street booze party" was a dinner given at the Willard Hotel, where on Monday Edward E. Loomis, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, is slated to give his account of the "Wall-street booze party" which Senator Brookhart of Iowa recently exposed in the Senate.

Texas Slayer Doomed Again

EASTLAND (Tex.) Nov. 8. (AP)—Ory Thompson today was sentenced to the death penalty for the second time by a jury here for the slaying of Lucian Shook near the latter's oil-field home at Lacey, Tex., in September, 1928.

Thompson was given the death penalty in October, 1928, but was granted a new trial. He also was charged with slaying Leon Shook, brother of Lucian.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

It was Kai Shang, a huge Celestial, who himself had murdered the captain of the pearl schooner as he lay asleep in his berth. Then, decked out in that officer's apparel which bore the badge and insignia of authority, the way-Chinaman and his policy hand—the scum of the south seasports, had attempted to round the South Atlantic and find a port where they might market their booty of pearls and diamonds.

The day before they sighted Jungle Island and discovered the little land-locked harbor upon the bosom of which the schooner now rode quietly at anchor, the watch beheld the outline of a warship upon the distant horizon. The change of being spoken and investigated by a man-of-war appealed not at all to any of them and so they had put into hiding until all danger was past.

During this time of waiting, the outlaws amused themselves by hunting, fishing and exploring the beautiful island. It was upon one of these expeditions far from camp that Kai Shang was surprised by the sound of voices ahead of them in the jungle. Motioning his companions to follow his example, Kai Shang crawled through the jungle in the direction of the unseen speakers. Soon they saw two men sitting on a log, earnestly conversing.

One was the mate of the Kincad, the other the most depraved looking of her sailors. "I think we can do it," the mate was saying. "Three of us can paddle the boat to the mainland in a day. Let the Englishmen look out for himself." "But," he continued, "we'll take the woman. She's too good a looking to leave behind." He winked knowingly, and added: "She ought to pay us well to get her back to civilization."

The "edge" was definitive chair, Genes, Machine Automatic, tetrach, who his team will, besides doing all the back packing and kicking was "for" time he had the ball he made McManis had the advantage at first quarter, the ball being in his territory all the time. Late in the first half, Harry Crawford, Raleigh, threw a pass through the line to Omer's kick on the 20-yard line. The ball bounced away to the right, and the referee called it dead. It lay on the 15-yard strip some 200 yds. from the goal line. The players looked on. Then Thomas took the ball on a running kick-off in the second half. It came through the Roman nose of Mello, who had been hit by him from behind on the 10-yard line. Ralphs advanced the ball to the 10-yard line. Mello carried it over, and then threw the score.

At the half Coach Brown's plan for the second half was completed. One was scored, and all the others were scored in a series of half short runs. Mello Almost at the starting end of nine of nine Camblis hurried. The

LOYOLA PLAYS PACIFIC TEAM

Lions Tackle Rivals on Northern Field

With twenty-three of his selected warriors Coach Bill Driver of Loyola University, left early this morning for Stockton where his Lions are scheduled to meet the heavy College of the Pacific eleven today. On account of their recent showing in the California Aztec game the local aggregation is a favorite to win the first athletic encounter between the two schools.

Although the Pacific squad boasts of a strong veteran line and a set of heavy, hard-charging ball carriers, they have lost two of their more important games this season, and seem to be a little too weak for the Lions. They have lost to the California Aggies by the score of 19 to 0. And seeing that the Del Rey eleven walked roughshod over the Aggies, it naturally follows that the northern team has but a fighting chance.

The Los Angeles aggregation will stop over at San Francisco during Sunday in order that they may witness the Santa Clara-St. Mary's game. Driver is anxious to see just what the Bronchos have in order that he might build his defense against the northern team for the game against them at Wrigley Field on Thanksgiving Day.

Stock Prices React After Early Burst of Strength But Close Fairly Steady

Stock prices reacted after an extension of Thursday's rally into the earlier part of the morning, but the market closed fairly steady. The New York market opened with a burst of strength, but the rally was checked by a sharp decline in the afternoon. The Los Angeles market followed the New York market, with a similar pattern of early strength followed by a decline. The market closed fairly steady, with a slight gain in the afternoon.

SIX INDICTED IN GASOLINE FRAUD QUIZ

Four Have Been Arrested
Accused of Plot to Evade
3-Cent State Tax

Six men were indicted by the Los Angeles county grand jury yesterday on charges of criminal conspiracy and perjury as a result of its investigation into an alleged gasoline tax evasion scheme.

Four of the men already have been taken into custody, and three others are being held under $15,000 bonds each. The names of the two additional men were withheld pending their apprehension.

The first four men are J. A. Austin, 39 years of age, an oil worker, of 1817 Spruce street, South Pasadena; Glenn A. Smith, 37, general manager of the Export Petroleum Company, of 1144 Buckingham road, Los Angeles; Clement R. Bird, 40, general superintendent of the Hercules Gasoline Company, of 1212 S. Main street, Los Angeles; and Russell R. Eagle, 35, of 864 West Thirty-fifth street, Los Angeles.

The indictment charges that the defendants conspired to defraud the state of the 3-cent gasoline tax by making false affidavits in some instances and by purchasing gasoline in bulk and reselling it in smaller quantities.

The indictment also charges that the defendants conspired to defraud the state of the 3-cent gasoline tax by making false affidavits in some instances and by purchasing gasoline in bulk and reselling it in smaller quantities.

MRS. PANTAGES GRANTED PROBATION OF TEN YEARS

Released Woman Pays $78,500 to Two Japanese Families After Judge Heeds Her Plea

Mrs. Lola Pantages, convicted of manslaughter as a result of the death of Joe Rokumoto in an automobile accident last June, yesterday was released from the custody of the Sheriff by Superior Judge Hardy, who placed her under probation for ten years. Her $50,000 bond was exonerated.

The wife of the multimillionaire theatrical man, Alexander Pantages, with shaking hands, then endorsed a check for $78,500 and presented it to William G. Bonnell, attorney for the Rokumoto family, in settlement of all damages to other occupants of the machine which was demolished in the collision which cost Rokumoto his life.

This formally finished Mrs. Pantages' trial, which began over her head and was taken from the courtroom in her wheeled chair by two special nurses and her son, Lloyd, and Rodney, and daughter, Carmen.

In granting the woman's plea for probation, Judge Hardy declared that:

(1) The preponderance of evidence adduced during the trial indicated that Mrs. Pantages had been drinking before the accident.

(2) Mrs. Pantages and her attorneys had agreed on a sum of money to be paid compensating persons injured in the accident.

(3) Mrs. Pantages had led a Christian life and devoted much of her time and money to welfare work and had never before been charged with a felony.

(4) Her health is such that a sentence to prison virtually would be a death sentence.

(5) Consideration of all the evidence and legal phases of the case indicated that she is entitled to probation and the fact that she has wealth and position should not discriminate against her.

The probation terms dictated by the court place Mrs. Pantages under the jurisdiction of the county probation department for ten years. During that time she must refrain from the use of intoxicating liquor in any form and may not even drive an automobile.

DAMAGES ORDERED
In closing his statement Judge Hardy ordered Mrs. Pantages to pay $78,500 to the persons injured in the accident within five days as full settlement of their claims.

FITTS GETS PLOT EVIDENCE

Davis Submits Dancing Girl's Statement of 'Asserted Conspiracy to Blemish His Character'

Avoiding discussion of the matter, Dist. Atty. Fitts declared yesterday that he probably will set Tuesday, next, as the date to look into the statement of Miss Odette R. Bachard, 25-year-old French dancer, in which she is said to have asserted that two discharged police officers, an investigator and underworld characters attempted to force her into a conspiracy to blemish the reputation of Chief of Police Davis and to blacken his name.

The statement, signed by Miss Bachard, was presented to Dist. Atty. Fitts by Chief Davis in person yesterday morning. Only a brief discussion of the case took place, the chief said, in which Mr. Fitts assured her that he will look into the matter as soon as possible.

Fitts declared that he did not know whether he will call in Miss Bachard or the persons named in her statement for questioning until after he has thoroughly acquainted himself with what the statement contained. This he will not be able to do, he said, because of pressure of other business, until early next week. Monday being a holiday it was anticipated that he meant Tuesday.

PHONE COMPANY AGREES TO CUT

Rail Board Order Accepted Without Protest

Course Decided in Order to Avoid Litigation

Vice-President Rush Gives Official Attitude

The State Railroad Commission's decision ordering a reduction in telephone rates of $2310,000 will be accepted by the Southern California Telephone Company without protest, in order to avoid extensive litigation. Announcement to this effect was contained in a statement issued yesterday by T. N. Rush, vice-president and general manager of the company. Not only will the company place the lowered rates in effect in accordance with the order, Rush stated, but will also continue to improve its service in the belief that the commission subsequently will allow an increase in rates if the new rates prove inadequate.

As a result of the decision, according to Rush's statement, the company will be forced to operate on less yielding rates than is its legal claim. The decision, he pointed out, means a reduction of 1 per cent in the company's gross revenue.

"While these rates are less than we feel we are entitled to under our legal claim," reads the statement, "it is our policy, whenever possible to do so, to effect reductions that our customers constantly will receive a greater service value at less cost for them. It is our intention to accept this order and avoid extensive litigation."

"We have full confidence that our customers and the public and reasonable allies to the public and reasonable allies. We will place these rates in effect and make every effort not only to continue but to improve our service, being confident that if these rates prove inadequate the commission will grant us the needed relief. Our organization will continue to devote its full effort to secure the public policy."

REVENUE SITUATION
Under this reduction, the company will be required to operate at rates yielding far less than its legal claim. During the recent rate proceedings, the evidence showed that the company's revenues are more than $6,000,000 short of providing a 7 per cent return on its investment.

The commission's decision regarding the annual gross revenue of the company operated at a heavy loss, and that even after its earnings are reduced, the company is unable to afford anywhere near a reasonable return on its investment.

The commission's decision regarding the annual gross revenue of the company operated at a heavy loss, and that even after its earnings are reduced, the company is unable to afford anywhere near a reasonable return on its investment.

FIGURES COMPARED
The commission in arriving at its figure of between 7 and 7.5 per cent, which it estimates the company will yield, took an appraisal figure of $77,100,000.

Against our claims of $99,990,000 or an amount less by approximately $22,890,000. In the estimation of the costs of operation the commission's depreciation expense alone is less than the company's by $1,600,000.

"It is a well-known fact that the phenomenal growth of the telephone industry has resulted in millions of dollars until today the company has placed at the disposal of its customers a vast quantity of telephone service. The company and its employees have used every effort to give the greatest quality of service at the lowest cost to the customer, consistent with efficiency and financial safety."

TRIP TO FATHERLAND
SEEKS EX-PRUSSIAN
Herman Miller, a native of Rychno, East Prussia, is being sought in Los Angeles as a result of the receipt of a letter by David Fitts of 3548 Country Club Drive, Hollywood, California, advising that his father is reported to be on his deathbed, and gravely anxious to see him.

The letter stated Miller let his home in 1914, and since then is believed to have divided his time between Los Angeles and San Francisco. It also contains assurances that if Miller will make his whereabouts known, transportation to Germany will be sent to him. He is requested to communicate with Fitts at the latter's home or business address at 1529 Seventh street.

BABYLESS BUGGY WORSE THAN BUGGYLESS BABY

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 8.—Lost-and-found babies are embarrassing enough, but a lost-and-found baby buggy is something to make a detective lose deep sleep and shudder. Being fairly close to the police station, Detective Lieutenant on the local force, declared today. At Fourth street and Santa Monica Boulevard the veteran officer found a babyless buggy, entirely oblivious to city ordinances regulating parking places and hours of parking. Only Officer of Tartar Cossacks to Escape With Life French Nobleman Comte Bohdan K. De Castellane, French nobleman and said to be the only officer of the Tartar Cossacks of the Caucasus to escape Bolshevik vengeance in 1917, was an arrival yesterday from Hawaii aboard the Lanes liner City of Honolulu. He said completion yesterday of his world tour leaves him convinced that California is the ideal place in which to live.

Comte De Castellane was hunting in the Caucasus Mountains when the World War began in 1914 and through force of circumstances enlisted in the ranks of the wild Tartar Cossacks. Later, he rose to the position of colonel among these Mohammedan nomads and fought with them on the Turkish front until 1917, where he says hundreds of Tartar brothers and cousins faced each other on opposing sides.

When the Red revolution swept Russia in 1917, Comte De Castellane was forced to flee for his life and he spent three years dodging death by the soviet, finally crossing safely to the Polish border at Bolechov in 1920.

The house De Castellane, of which Bohdan is the ruling member today, was founded in 1818 by Guillaume De Castellane, a soldier under the first Louis, Le Debonnaire.

Maddux Tells of New Fusion by Plane Lines

President J. L. Maddux of Maddux Air Lines, who has returned from a four week trip to New York in conference with President C. M. Keyes of Transcontinental Air Transport, announced yesterday that, effective the 16th inst., these two air passenger transportation companies will be known and operated as Transcontinental Air Transport-Maddux Air Lines.

Mr. Maddux is vice-president of Transcontinental Air Transport and is in charge of western division operations from Clovis, N. M., to the Pacific Coast with headquarters in Los Angeles. According to Mr. Maddux this is a follow-up of the original plan of the companies set forth in a merger last June.

FRENCH VETERANS DANCE
The local organization of French War Veterans, headed by H. Didot, Consul of France at Los Angeles, will celebrate the anniversary of the Armistice by a dance at Elks' Temple today at 8 p.m.

ARMISTICE DAY
Armistice Day will be celebrated with a banquet and entertainment by veterans of the First Division, A.E.F., Monday night at headquarters of the First Division Society, 308 West Third street, according to announcement by Carl Sells, president of the local chapter.

COE HAZZOURT HERVEY will officiate as chief of the parade and will lead the "show" army band. An elaborate program of entertainment also will be provided. All former First Division members are invited.

The banquet will be served at 7 p.m. and the entertainment will follow. Reservations may be made by calling Mr. Sells at Elks' 7121, or Capt. Arthur King at Mutual 1311.

The target of a wide-sweeping cross-examination which concerned chiefly his political activities while in office former Mayor George E. The day ended with Cryer still on the stand and his examination will be continued when court reconvenes next Tuesday.

Letters Sent Advocating Site at San Diego

Advantages for Dirigible Field Pointed To

All the chambers of commerce in Southern California were asked yesterday to join in the campaign to secure the selection of the Camp Kearny site for the United States Navy dirigible base, in a letter sent out by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. The letter also urged that the commercial bodies ask their members to write to Congressmen favoring the Southern California site.

In addition, chamber officials said yesterday, they will open an intensive campaign in Los Angeles to bring a barrage of correspondence on eastern senators and representatives to ask their aid to the fight to procure the base.

CAMP KEARNY CALLED BEST
According to a naval board recommendation, the first Pacific Coast dirigible base will be built either at Sunnyvale or at Camp Kearny, near San Diego, and the Los Angeles Chamber is leading the campaign to urge the selection of the San Diego site. In a statement sent to the business interests and citizens connected with the chamber, the Camp Kearny location was termed the most logical of any on the Pacific Coast. The base will be constructed at a cost of between $1,000,000 and $3,000,000 and will house the two large dirigibles now being built by Goodyear for the Navy.

The letter, forwarded by the Chamber to the Southern California organizations follows:

CHAMBER LETTER
"Your attention is respectfully directed to the fact that the Camp Kearny site at San Diego has been recommended by the Board of Naval Experts as one of the sites possible for the location of the naval dirigible base, the other site mentioned being in Northern California.

"We are soliciting your support for a combined Southern California program in favor of the San Diego site, as it is but natural that Southern California should expect to receive this big development."

"Won't you, therefore, please take action with your representatives in Congress, urging a united Southern California and in every way assist in developing interest on the part of other representatives in Congress favorable to the San Diego site?"

"The San Diego Chamber of Commerce is in position to supply you with full information as to arguments for the Camp Kearny site."

ARGUMENTS FOR SITE
"Briefly they are basically as follows:

"Ideal climatic conditions, not found in the north.

"Proximity of naval personnel for lowering cost of operation.

"Ideal ground conditions for foundation work, not found in the northern site, and all improvements in which should not the Navy a saving of close to a half a million dollars."

"The location of the United States Fleet in southern waters and the naval heavier-than-air base now at San Diego being an ideal location in support of the Camp Kearny location."

"This matter is now before the General Naval Board and will be considered within two weeks and emergency action is necessary if Southern California is to win."

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

DOUBT not that there are various gentlemen in Wall street who would like to revise the language of the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation—especially the part about prosperity.

JURIES
In view of what are described as the jury-room proceedings of the Pantages trial it would seem that there is some philosophy in the military court-martial plan of having the legal expert sit with the jury.

INFERNO IN SIDE STREETS
"One of the chief crimes of the films," says the distinguished associate editor of The Outlook, "is the bait they hold out to children to lure them into these infernos in the side streets."

It looks very much as though Editor Sells has been looking at some bootleg pictures made in Europe. I have seen a lot of movies, but I must have missed all those with lurid inferno in side streets.

He ought to take a look some time at the home-made products where he will see virtue rewarded and sin punished. Movies may be various other things; but they are painfully moral.

Incidentally, it might be remarked that the only dirty one that has been exposed for some time made a terrific hit in New York—and was a dismal failure in Hollywood. It must be something else that amuses the morals of New York.

GOING UNDER
A new anesthetic from Germany—which operates by injection—may contribute much to the success of surgical operations. There is no doubt that the terror of "going under" materially weakens the ability of the average patient to survive the shock.

OUR JAPANESE FUTURE
While Wall street squalls with the rumors of the stung gambler, the business men of Los Angeles are extending the right hand of friendship to our friends from Japan.

Our future lies to the Orient, not to the West. The sooner we begin to think of Japan and Japan's trade as the New West instead of the Far West, the more secure our prosperity. Also, the sooner we begin to think in terms of fundamentals instead of World margins, the happier we will all be.

There is one legitimate way of making money; which is to sell something that supplies some one's actual need. Hot air is not among these essentials.

LOOK OUT, MARY
Mary Garden had better be talking pictures alone.

That movie camera is a great, cold instrument. It shows through cinematograph and photo that old man with the eyegles is a most pitiable manner.

I have heard D. W. Griffith refuse to photograph a girl who had been out late to a party because he said the camera would pick up the fatigue that she did not yet feel herself.

FRAME-UP
The plot of two discharged policemen to "frame" the Chief with a French dancing girl points again to an obvious fact.

The punishment visited upon policemen who are unfaithful to their oaths of office is not hard enough. Anybody is likely to lose a job in any industry. A crooked policeman suffers no more than

"House Affre" Previewed by

Theater Folk

Simeon Gest Plans to Resume

Pley Production

"Virginian" Breaks Records

at Paramount

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

Long Beach, apparently, is the play premiere town of the week for the Pacific Coast.

A new comedy-drama by Mann

Page, titled "House Affre," in production for the first time has been the motive for a steady pilgrimage of actors, authors and managers to this city by the ocean. Long Beach audiences have taken to it with gas-to and packed houses have greeted practically every performance by the Charles King Stock Company.

This writer saw it last night and thought it most promising. It is a bright piece built for laughing purposes only, around the struggles of home-town folk to keep up the installment payments. The first two acts move smoothly, albeit they would stand polishing in one or two rough spots. The third act falls a little flat and could take considerable rewriting. The idea of the play is novel, and much of the dialogue and characterization is excellent.

"House Affre" belongs more in the clean, wholesome category than in the smart Broadway classification. Mann Page, the author, is a Denver boy who studied play-writing, went to business college in

New York and then returned to Denver to study law and write plays, including "Lucky Quixote"

and "The Backslapper." With Paul

Dickey, "Mama Loves Papa" in collaboration with John McGowan, and

"Hush Money" with Alfred E.

Jackson.

Gest to Produce

Simeon Gest, Civic Repertory

head, broke a long silence yesterday to remark that he probably would stage production of plays right after Christmas.

Mr. Gest, new occupying officer in the Hollywood Music Box, was both to announce the new season and to make a list of the offerings.

They will not, however, he said, be of the "Broadway success" type.

"We want to give Los Angeles really fine plays, in keeping with the Repertory scheme of things," he said. "We will not, however, go to Broadway to pay heavy royalties such as we did last year, for example, on "The Silver Cord" and "The Quandary." We are considering the sort of thing that Eva Le lost and won.

Some time ago Germany produced a film, "The Raider Emden." The present sea classic at the Filmarte is Britain's answer. A photographic dramatization of a great naval encounter. It shows tremendous achievement. No personal story is thought of in the bigger clash of sea and steel and men.

Supervised by Britain's naval authorities, almost every detail may be accepted as authentic. A masculine picture this, and it arouses admiration for its tenseness, its speed and action.

The historical disaster of Coronel

saw the sinking of the English

Monmouth and the Good Hope, commanded by Rear-Admiral Crad-

ock. A counter-attack at the battle of Falkland Islands destroyed the German fleet under Von Spee. To avoid both battles thirty-three ships and 40,000 men have been used in the gripping spectacle. Photography is unusually excellent.

War itself is not exploited, but pictured as a necessary horror. It is the wonder of machinery, the power of organization which are exploited.

Only one real fault is felt, and with acute pity. Scenes showing destruction of the ships, their sinking, have all been attended to in the studio. They are abundant and fascinating.

"Batteries" credited by Charles Chaplin as the best short subject he has ever seen, is an added feature. One agrees with him.

Its theme brings out the blindness

most of us show as we let life escape us on every corner. Realism has been turned into art through the direction of Russell Birdwell and his ideas have been carried out smoothly and evenly by Henry

B. Walthall, Joseph Bruckner and a half-dozen others.

CECIL B. DE MILLE'S first venture into the field of double films had its first popular showing yesterday when "Dynamic" opened its en-proval of the double feature, and
